

The National Forest's largest woodland!

Map Key

- Parking
- National Forest Way
- Bridleway
- Public right of way
- Welcome barn
- Ancient woodland
- Photo opportunity
- Viewpoint
- Bird hide
- Human sundial
- Land sculpture
- Wildlife only zone
No public access
- Wind turbine
- Woodland Trust boundary

●●● Royal Groves Walk

Wander through the winding rides of our royal groves, stopping off to explore our spiralling land sculpture, then head down to the lake to see what birdlife is enjoying the water.

Combination of grassy rides and gravel paths. Uneven sections, and can be muddy when wet. One long, fairly steep slope and other long, moderate slopes up to 490m. Includes three radar kissing gates.

2.25mi / 3.6km
moderate

●●● Lake Walk

Take a stroll past our welcome barn, down through native trees towards our glorious lake, before heading back up through more flourishing young woodland. Along the way, stop to admire the views back across the wood and wider landscape.

A wide gravel path free from gates and steps. Includes long, moderate slopes of up to 490m and some short, uneven sections. Two benches on route.

1.25mi / 2.1km
easy

○●○ Woodland Walk

Discover all this wonderful wood has to offer. Take in the royal groves, precious ancient woodland, wetland birdlife down at the lake (investigating the bird hide as you pass!) and magnificent countryside views across the National Forest.

Mixture of grassy rides, earth tracks and firm, gravel paths. Narrow and/or muddy in places with stretches of uneven or rough ground. Some long, moderate slopes. Includes kissing gates, squeeze gaps, wooden bridges and a short section of boardwalk.

3.25mi / 5.3km
moderate

Thanks to the GRCF for funding the production of this panel and essential maintenance work on site as part of the 'People and woods: Getting better together project' (2020-23)

Green Recovery Challenge Fund

WOODLAND TRUST

Our creation and restoration work at Queen Elizabeth Diamond Jubilee Wood has been supported by

Get involved. Find out more about Queen Elizabeth Diamond Jubilee Wood and our work as the UK's largest woodland conservation charity:
0330 333 3300 | The Woodland Trust, Kempton Way, Grantham, Lincolnshire, NG31 6LL | woodlandtrust.org.uk

The Woodland Trust is a registered charity no. 294344. A non-pro fit making company limited by guarantee. Registered in England no. 1982873. The Woodland Trust logo is a registered trademark.
© Crown Copyright 2024. All rights reserved. Ordnance Survey Licence no. AL100021607. DC00452 24.01.24